

YELLOW SUNSHINES NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

Look what we've learned!

Looking back, our little sunshines have been hard at work this last year. In the month of November. We have explored the seasons, families and Fall harvest. We have been working on recognizing the first letter in our first name. We have learned a cute song to help. It's called "Our Name Begins With". We have also played a game called delivering letters. We have also been focusing on the letters G and H. We have talked about words that start with these letters. We noticed that some of our friends names begins with G. The sunshines had a fun time matching shapes of leaves, playing Big Bingo with shapes and learning a rhyme about shapes called "I Can Make a Shape" which all helped us learn how to recognize our shapes. We have been working really hard on sharing with others. We have been talking about how to share and what words to use when sharing. This month the sunshines really enjoyed going on a leaf hunt to find leaves to collage with. We also had a blast cutting out fall items out of magazines and collaging with them. We also painted our family portraits. This month was a great experience for all of us.

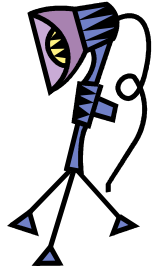

What we are learning...

The New Year has so much to offer and our sunshines are waiting with excitement. This month we will be learning about winter fun and celebrations. We will be working on listening and following 1-2 steps directions. We will also be reviewing our body parts. Our nursery rhymes for the month will be "Jack Sprat" and "Higglety Pigglety Pop". We will be working on sorting and matching with snowflakes and counting from 1-10. Ms. Crystal has so many fun activities planned. For the month of December we will be exploring through our 5 senses. Talking about sound, taste and smells and how we use these senses in our every day life. We hope you are excited about the upcoming month as Ms. Crystal is.
