

PROGRESSIVE
INTERVENTIONS

Creating pathways through education and psychology

Behavior Compass[©] Workshop for Parents:

Helping Understand and Manage Challenging Behaviors

- Where: Orange County Early Literacy Program
2101 E. 4th St. Suite 160B, Santa Ana, CA 92705
- Date: September 23rd and 30th (Thursdays)
- Time: 6:00-8:30pm
- Fee: $150 per family (up to 2 adults) Rate covers attendance and materials for both nights.

Space is limited so reserve your spot today by registering today by calling (949) 945-7356 or at www.drbrrett.net

Progressive Interventions is a psychology-based practice with a mission to improve behavior management skills for parents through cost effective education services. The 5-hour Behavior Compass[©] workshop offers an opportunity for parents to learn, practice and implement fundamental intervention strategies that will make parenting less stressful and time with your children more enjoyable. These services are provided by a trained mental health professional with more than 15 years of experience working with children and adults.

For additional information, please call (949) 945-7356 or visit www.drbrrett.net