

INFANTS CLASSROOM NEWS

FEBRUARY 2012

Look what we've learned!

- Grant has adjusted to our classroom easily and quickly. We look forward to getting to know our friend in the weeks ahead
- Nicholas has changed a great deal in the last month. We are very excited of the progress he has made sitting up, eating fairly independently and is days away from crawling.
- Yolanda has adjusted into our classroom once again quickly and smoothly.
- Pearson, now our "big man on campus" has been a great helper to both Miss Linda and Miss Cassie and has been visiting the Sunshine room a couple times a week now.
- Parker's vocabulary is starting to bloom as he can now say "truck", "help", "stuck" and "no".
- Olivia has been working on her mobility as she can now go up and down the stairs of the changing table independently.
- Ally has been practicing using her words this month to satisfy her needs. We have been encouraging this approach and giving Ally plenty of opportunities to use those words.
- hold his own bottle.

A Sneak Peek at the Weeks Ahead

Love is in the air this month as we have many great sensory and art projects lined up to help with fine motor development and exposure to different mediums.

- Grant will be working on "tri-podding" and tummy time
- Nicholas is going to make the leap from a sitter to a crawler and will have plenty of opportunities to refine his crawling technique 😊
- Yolanda's last day with us will be February 3rd. We wish her the best as she and her brother will be attending a new school close to home.
- Parker will be encouraged to use his words when needs arise throughout the day.
- February, for Olivia, will be all about language development.
- Ally will practice going up and down the diaper changing table using alternating feet and hopefully will be able to accomplish this independently by the end of the month.
