

INFANTS CLASSROOM NEWS

NOVEMBER 2011

Look what we've learned!

Brr...cold days are on the way as we welcome fall and we are quickly approaching winter.

- Parker has mastered the spoon during lunch and is drinking successfully out of a Dixie cup.
- Ally has begun to use lots of new words and is quite the dancer when we have musical activities.
- Pearson is humming songs and mimicking finger plays like "The itsy bitsy spider".
- Olivia has learned to following 1-2 step directions and does great with waiting her turn during transition activities.
- Miles' vocabulary has grown exponentially and can clearly communicate his needs.
- Sam has learned to use 2-3 word sentences and participates during sing along at group time.
- Matthew has done a great job adapting to our program and is able to sit up unassisted and can hold his own bottle.
- Nicholas has also done great with adapting to a new room and surroundings. Nick has learned to sit up, roll over and

A Sneak Peek at the Weeks Ahead

- Parker will continue to self feed with utensils and drink from a Dixie cup. We will work with him on his vocabulary.
- Ally will continue to practice using a utensil and drink from a Dixie cup. We will work with her on her vocabulary.
- Pearson will continue to practice saying words to communicate his needs.
- Olivia will continue to practice using a utensil at lunch and we will work with her on her vocabulary.
- Miles will begin visiting the sunshine room and take part in their morning group time and will slowly transition into that room.
- Matthew will continue to work on sitting up, rolling over and tummy time reaching activities.
- Nicholas will also continue to work on sitting up, rolling over and begin solid food.

Reminders & Announcements

- Thanksgiving lunch party is on November 19th at 11:00am. We'll be eating yummy treats for lunch so look for the sign up sheet.
- Please make a family collage to post in the classroom. (Matthew H. and Alyssa N.)
- Your child needs an extra change of clothes in the cubby that properly fits them as your child is always growing.
- We ask that you bring a jacket/sweater for your child daily.
- Please be sure to take all papers and art work home.
